History 1. Before you watch the BtN story, record what you know about the Olympic Games. 2. When were the first Olympic Games held?, The 14-man U.S. team dominated the track and field events, taking first place in 9 of the 12 events. The Games were a success, and a second Olympiad, to be held in France, was scheduled. Olympic Games were held in 1900 and 1904, and by 1908 the number of competitors more than quadrupled the number at Athens â€œ from 311 to 2,082., the first Olympics were held in 776 B.C. From that point on, the games were held every four years, and became such a regular event that people of the time used them to mark epochs in history. The original games finally came to an end in A.D. 393, when they were banned by Emperor Theodosius I. Theodosius was a Christian and disliked the gamesâ€™™ pagan origins.
