AMADEUS 2009 PAPERBACK PDF -

Search results, The Requiem, Op. 9, by Maurice Duruflé, published in 1948 by the French publishing house Durand, was first issued in a version for SATB choir and organ. It had been commissioned six years earlier under the collaborationist Vichy regime, but Duruflé was still working on it in 1944 when the regime collapsed and in fact did not complete it until the year of publication. Gabriel Fauré composed his Requiem in D minor, Op. 48, between 1887 and 1890. The choral-orchestral setting of the shortened Catholic Mass for the Dead in Latin is the best-known of his large works. Its focus is on eternal rest and consolation. Fauré's reasons for composing the work are unclear, but do not appear to have had anything to do with the death of his parents in the mid-1880s. Authorship Note Mozart's Requiem was unfinished at the time of his death. Unless otherwise stated the scores below relate to the completion of the work
